To ensure timely fulfillment of your order, please work with your Seagate Account Manager and present your final product demand in the form of a non-cancelable, non-returnable (NCNR) purchase order no later than the Final Purchase Order date listed in the Product Transition Table.

Any concerns you may have regarding this production phase-out and new product introduction schedule should be forwarded to your Seagate Technology Account Manager as soon as possible.

Drives purchased from Seagate are subject to the tax, customs and export control laws and regulations of the United States and may not be sold, leased or otherwise transferred to restricted countries, or used by a restricted end user or an end user engaged in activities related to weapons of mass destruction. It is your responsibility to comply with and abide by those laws and regulations, and the customs and tax laws and regulations of the country for which the product is destined.

Thank you for your continued interest in the Seagate product lines. We look forward to working with you to ensure a smooth product transition.

If you have any questions regarding this Program, please contact your Seagate Representative.
